

HUSBAND OBJECTS TO OPERATION

Wife Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Des Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that without it I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCHE JEFFERSON, 708 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Before submitting to a surgical operation it is wise to try to build up the female system and cure its derangements with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it has saved many women from surgical operations.

SOCIETY

THE topic of paramount interest in the younger society set is the announcement, made this week, of the betrothal of Miss Ruth Zelle and Corbett Moody.

None of the friends of the couple were surprised, for the engagement has been an open secret for several weeks, as are one or two other similar affairs in the same set.

Miss Zelle is the granddaughter of Mrs. Henrietta Zelle, with whom she has lived since the death of her mother about twelve years ago. Her father, the late Frederick Zelle, died at the Fairmont Hotel about five years ago. She is a sister of Miss Marion Zelle, one of the prettiest girls of society, and of John Zelle. She is a cousin of Mesdames William H. and Augustus Taylor, Cheever Cowdin and Frederick McNear. She was graduated three years ago from Mits Spence's school in New York, since which time she made her debut and entered into the world of society which was hers by right of her charm and beauty and as well as by inheritance.

She is a petite brunette, her fiancé is a stalwart, tall youth of athletic build, and very handsome. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Moody and a brother of Joseph Moody. He is a nephew of Mrs. Claremont Livingston Best and Mrs. Beverly MacMonagle.

No date has been set for the wedding, but it is expected that it will take place this winter.—San Francisco Chronicle.

ADMIRAL WINSLOW HONORED

Admiral Cameron McRae Winslow, U. S. N., who was retired last Saturday from active service in the navy, is in the Yosemite Valley with Mrs. Winslow and his family. The Winslows expect to spend some time in the valley, where they are established at Yosemite Falls Camp.

After they have exhausted the possibilities of the valley, they will tour through the state. It is probable that their present home will be in the East.

Admiral Winslow and Mrs. Winslow have contributed a great deal to the millage of the social season at Coronado, where the Pacific and the reserve fleets have been stationed for the last few months.

One of the elaborate affairs given in their honor last week was a farewell dinner at the Hotel Coronado, with the officers of the U. S. S. San Diego as hosts.

The San Diego was the flagship of the admiral's fleet, and a model of the ship formed the centerpiece of the roof, and the tables were set around it. The foaming sea about the decks of the ship was of moss. The ship was represented as steaming at full speed.

The model was 25 feet long and in exact proportion. It was one-twentieth of the length of the real San Diego. The ship was shown stripped for action, with lights in their proper places and smoke pouring from her stacks. This was ingeniously taken off through flues.

The officers present were Medical Inspector E. S. Bogart, Lieut. I. C. Kidd, Lieut. W. S. Hogg, Ensign F. W. Wend, Lieut. F. A. Carner, U. S. M. C.; Lieut. J. S. McCain, Ensign L. W. Bagby, Lieut. Howard M. Lammers, aide to Admiral Caperton; Ensign G. F. Martin, Lieut. J. B. Seebree, U. S. M. C.; Assistant Surgeon G. C. Wilson, Ensign P. W. Rutledge, Ensign D. C. Watson, Ensign W. H. A. Pike, Paymaster Baker, Lieut. G. C. Pegram, Ensign J. D. Price, Ensign B. R. Alexander, Ensign W. A. Grant, Passed Assistant Surgeon Howson W. Cole, Jr., Ensign G. M. Steele, Ensign F. G. Kutz, Ensign J. B. Kneip, Ensign C. E. Hoard, Ensign W. P. Bacon, Lieut. A. T. Beauregard, Lieut. Comdr. Z. E. Briggs and Maj. W. N. McKelvey, U. S. M. C.

Other affairs in honor of the popular admiral and his wife were a splendid ball at the Hotel Coronado last Thursday night, a garden party last is the average quantity in a healthy adult, but it is the quality of the blood that determines our strength to resist sickness. With weak blood we find cold hands and chilly feet; in children an aversion to study, and in adults rheumatic tendencies.

In changing seasons get abundant fresh air and take a spoonful of Scott's Emulsion after meals, because Scott's Emulsion is a rich blood-food that will increase both quantity and quality of the blood while it warms the body and helps carry off the impurities.

When multitudes of people are today taking Scott's Emulsion to avert winter sickness, and are giving it to their children, it is careless to neglect its benefits. Look out for substitutes. Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

Friday afternoon on the west lawn at Coronado, with Medical Inspector E. S. Bogart of Admiral Winslow's personal staff, and Mrs. Bogart as hosts. Both affairs were attended by the large aggregation of army and navy luminaries now gathered at San Diego by reason of the Mexican situation.—San Francisco Examiner.

PARTY RETURNS FROM MAUI

Mrs. Helen Noonan, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Lois Brundred, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney and Vernon Tenney were arrivals from Maui on the Monday morning Manoa after having done the Maui ditch trail and a night and a day in Haleakala watching the sunrise among the clouds—a fascinating experience.

Miss Alice Hastings, Miss Hattie Lucas, Miss Alice Macfarlane and Miss Mary Lucas remained on Maui the week of Miss Violet Makee, who was also one of Mrs. Noonan's party.

HONOLULUANS ON COAST

SAN FRANCISCO.—Among the arrivals at the Cliff hotel on the steamer Matsonia, August 1, were:

Mrs. William Williamson, and child, and Miss B. K. Dwight of Honolulu. Other Cliff arrivals from the islands were: E. W. Peterson, Honolulu; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Griffiths, Honolulu; Miss Eleanor Griffiths, Honolulu; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clemence, Honolulu; Miss J. Mathews, Honolulu; T. M. Church, Honolulu. Mr. and Mrs. F. Van Clef returned today from their honeymoon spent in Honolulu and were delighted with the islands. They are registered at the Cliff hotel en route to their home in Chicago.

Mr. Arthur F. Wall of Honolulu registered at the Cliff hotel a few days ago en route home after a trip to New York.

MRS. AND MISS McRAE HOSTESSES

Mrs. and Miss McRae, wife and daughter of Col. J. H. McRae, the Hawaiian department adjutant-general, will be hostesses at a card party to be given at the Colonial hotel Wednesday afternoon, August 16. A number of ladies have been asked to meet Mrs. Charles A. Hedekin, wife of Maj. Hedekin, 4th Cavalry, the affair being given for her.

There was much rejoicing in the younger set on the arrival a few days ago of Mrs. Arnold Marcus, the former Miss Elizabeth Cowles, who is here on a visit to her grandmother, Mrs. James Marvin Curtis, on Union street. It is the second time that San Francisco has had the opportunity of greeting this attractive young matron since her marriage more than a year ago.

Mrs. Marcus was one of the most popular girls of the younger set, and much regret was felt when her marriage took her away. Lieut. Marcus of the navy is stationed in Cavite, Philippine Islands, where the attractive San Francisco bride has been making her home since his assignment to shore duty.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. S. W. Bogan of Santa Barbara was the honored member of a bridge party given Thursday by her sister, Mrs. James Woodward of Mare Island. Mrs. Bogan is the house-guest of her sister and Dr. Woodward, and has been accorded much favor by the resident families at the navy yard. Dr. Woodward's residence at the Naval Hospital reservation was decorated prettily Thursday; the navy yard nurseries having yielded up the finest of pink gladioli and asters for the occasion. Some half hundred of the naval set were in attendance, quite a number of ladies in addition to the players having called for tea.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Templeton Crocker, Mrs. Frederick Kohl and Miss Marion Zelle will arrive here tomorrow from Honolulu, where they have spent the greater part of the summer. Their home-coming will be an added impetus to the gaieties of the summer season down the peninsula, where the closed doors and shuttered windows of the Crocker and Kohl homes have been regarded as chilling reminders of the absence of two families who are always relied upon to furnish a considerable quota of the entertaining in their sets.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Of interest to many in this city is the announcement of the engagement of Mrs. Gladys Goodrich Belknap, daughter of Rear-Admiral Casper F. Goodrich, U. S. N., retired, and John Clark Breannon of New York. Both Rear-Admiral Goodrich and his daughter have many friends in San Francisco, where they enjoyed an extended visit during the exposition and where Rear-Admiral Goodrich was stationed several years ago. The wedding will take place at the country home of the bride at Penfret, Conn., the date to be in the early fall. John Clark Breannon, who is a mining engineer, is a graduate of the University of Michigan.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Mrs. Martha S. Giegler, author of "The Light on the Hill" and other charming books, and founder of The Southern Industrial Education Association of Washington, D. C., has been visiting for the last few weeks her son, Roland S. Giegler, and his wife in Vallejo. Mrs. Giegler sailed Saturday on the steamship President for Puget Sound, where she will visit her daughter, wife of Naval Constructor Charles Willis Fisher U. S. N., at the Bremerton Navy Yard.—San Francisco Examiner.

The Potter palm room was the scene of the usual Saturday night frolic and one of the prettiest dinners was that of Miss Nina Jones, who presided at a rose pink table and had as guests the following friends: Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Edwards, Mrs. Tanner, Mrs. True, Miss Mary Gallagher, Miss Gladys Keeney, Harold Chase, Mr. Towler, Reginald Fernald, Mark Horne, John Barrymore, Clarence Mattel, Edward Sheldon.—San Francisco Examiner.

The friends of Colonel Eben Swift, U. S. A., and his family are regretting that army orders have decreed that Colonel Swift is to go to Fort Leavenworth. Mrs. Swift and Miss Katherine Swift will not go East, however, until September at the earliest. They expect to remain here until the hot weather has abated in the Eastern states.

Major H. H. Whitney, U. S. A., of Fort Scott, was in the same general order from Washington transferred to the adjutant general's department.—San Francisco Examiner.

One of the unique affairs of the week was the stunt party given by Mrs. George Coleman in the garden at her Montecito residence. Each guest was called upon to perform some original stunt, and some of them were very cleverly done and proved a great surprise to the other members of the company. The gathering was composed of Mrs. Otto Reinhardt Hansen, Mrs. V. Mott Potter, Miss Marion (Mrs.) Wentworth, Mrs. W. B. Cunnaher, Miss Constance Barbour, Miss Kathleen O'Brien, Miss Nina Jones.—San Francisco Examiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin Wood are moving into the Harry Howard place at San Mateo, until recently occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Robin Hayne. The Haynes are with Mrs. Hayne, Sr., pending the completion of the handsome new home which they are building.—San Francisco Examiner.

Two of the affairs which are keenly anticipated by society, especially by the younger set, are the ball to be given by Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pope for their daughter, Miss Emily Pope, for the informal dance to be given for the same young guest of honor by Miss Helen Crocker.

Mrs. Pope spent last week at Tahoe Tavern and will probably go South for a few days before returning to San Mateo. Plans for the ball will take definite shape upon her return home.—San Francisco Examiner.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Howard Campbell have returned from San Francisco, where they accompanied Mrs. Campbell's mother, Mrs. Cliff, on her return to the north. Dr. and Mrs. Campbell are taking possession of their handsome new home up Mission way this week.—San Francisco Examiner.

The following cards were sent out to the friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Guild, who will be at home to their guests on Saturday afternoon:

Mrs. Paul Withington, who has been in Honolulu for a year as the house-guest of her father and mother, Rev. and Mrs. Henry Bond Restarick, leaves for her Boston home on Friday after a delightful visit. She, like all islanders, loves her island home and is very loth to go.

The sympathy of all of Honolulu is extended to the J. A. Magoon family for the grief that has come to them.

FT. SHAFTER SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

FORT SHAFTER, Aug. 16.—It was with the deepest regret that those of the "Second" remaining at Fort Shafter saw many of their long time associates off on Monday to join the new regiment at Schofield Barracks, which will be the home of the 32d. Schofield gains much by this division of the 2d Infantry, but its gain is most decidedly a great loss to the old regiment as many of the ablest officers and most attractive matrons were taken from this post, and they will be missed in the social life of the garrison.

One of the most delightful affairs of last week was the luncheon given by Mrs. Edwin S. Hartshorn in her home in the main garrison, where she entertained in honor of those who were leaving the post to become members of the 32d at Schofield.

The table decorations were pale yellow poppies, gracefully arranged in an antique bowl of the same color. Those for whom covers were laid were Mrs. John C. Grady, Mrs. John B. Richardson, Mrs. Hugh Halston, Mrs. Witsell, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. John Randolph, Mrs. Paul R. Manchester and the hostess.

Lieut. and Mrs. Thomas J. Camp entertained informally at their home in the cantonment Sunday evening for Lieut. and Mrs. John B. Richardson and Mrs. John C. Grady.

Warm congratulations are being extended to Lieut. and Mrs. Paul S. Reinecke on the birth of a son.

Those from the post attending the swimming party at De Russy given by the Misses Raymond of Honolulu followed by a supper at their home were Miss Bonnie Scott, Miss Eleanor Scott and Mr. William E. Co vell.

Lieut. and Mrs. Raymond A. Wheeler have with them for an indefinite stay the mother, father and sister of Mrs. Wheeler.
